Why PickWaste?

A photograph of a crushed aluminum can, likely a soda can, lying on a bed of brown, dry autumn leaves. The can is partially flattened and has some blue and white markings on it. The background is a dense layer of similar leaves, creating a textured, natural setting.

The Corporate Social Responsibility Event

What our event entails:

- 1 hour litter cleanup with the employees of your company.
- A keynote presentation that explains how to exemplify sustainability in your workplace.
- Challenging and thought-provoking team building activities to foster better relationships within your company.
- Lunch catered at zero waste, with food of your choice (for each employee).
- A professional 4K video to capture the entire event.

Please contact us for the different pricing options that are available for you and your company. Price range is based on many factors, including the number of employees, optional lunch, and video footage.

Why PickWaste?

Share Your Story:

Share your company's story to our 4000+ network on social media. Through video, pictures and infographics, we will be sharing the collaboration all over social media.

Build Your Brand:

Your logo will be shared on our website, on our final donor slide when we give PowerPoint presentations, and at their annual dinner. You will also receive a professionally made video that you can use in any way you like.

Contribute to the Community:

You are giving back to the community by participating in our CSR event. Your participation will help raise more awareness about the importance of taking care of the environment, and highlight your support for young entrepreneurs.

“

To spread awareness about the pollution solution through education, and empowering individuals by using the theory of committing to small consistent actions.
